4	SYNOPSIS: This bill would further provide for
5	the powers of the authority.
6	This bill would also exempt certain agricultural
7	authorities from municipal ordinances or regulations
8	without the consent of the authority.
9
10	A BILL
11	TO BE ENACTED
12	AN ACT
13
14	Relating to agriculture authorities; to amend Section
15	11-20-71, Code of Alabama 1975, to authorize the board of 16	directors of an authority to appoint former members of the 17	board as directors emeritus to serve as goodwill ambassadors
18	of the board; to amend Section 11-20-73, Code of Alabama 1975,
19	to further provide for the powers of the authority; and to 20	amend Section 11-20-80, Code of Alabama 1975, to exempt
21	certain agriculture authorities from municipal ordinances or
22	regulations without the consent of the authority.
23	BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:
24	Section 1. Sections 11-20-71, 11-20-73, and 11-20-80,
25	Code of Alabama 1975, are amended to read as follows:
26	" §11-20-71
27	(a) The board of directors of an agriculture authority
28	shall be as specified in the articles and in accordance with 29 Section 11-20-70.

- (b) Each agriculture authority shall have a chair, vice chair, secretary, and treasurer to be elected by the board of directors. The offices of secretary and treasurer may, but need not, be held by the same person. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The officers and directors shall serve for the terms provided for in the articles. A director may not draw any salary for any service rendered or for any duty performed as director. The duties of the chair, vice chair, secretary, and treasurer shall be those as are customarily performed by such officers and as may be prescribed by the board of directors from time to time.
 - (c) All directors shall serve until their successors are duly appointed or until they cease to be qualified.

 Vacancies on the board shall be filled as provided for in the articles, but any individual appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. In the event any uncertainty arises as to the terms of office of the directors, the county commission or individual authorized to appoint the directors may clarify the term by adoption of an appropriate resolution or by execution of an appropriate certificate, and the term of office shall be as so clarified.
 - (d) All proceedings of the board of directors of an agriculture authority shall be reduced to writing by the secretary of the authority and shall be signed by at least two directors present at the proceedings. Copies of the proceedings, when certified by the secretary under the seal of the agriculture authority, shall be received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the matters and things therein certified.

- (e) Directors of an agriculture authority must be residents and qualified electors of the county within the authorized operational area of the authority. If any director ceases to be a resident of the county, he or she shall cease to be a director, and the position shall remain vacant until a successor is appointed in accordance with the articles and this article.
- (f) A director of an agriculture authority may not have an interest, directly or indirectly, in any contract of work, material, or services, or the profits therefrom, to be furnished or performed for the authority under this article if the director has, directly or indirectly, more than a 10 percent interest in any business, firm, or corporation, or profits thereof, furnishing or providing work, materials, or services.
- (g) The board of directors may appoint former members of the board to serve as directors emeritus. Directors emeritus shall not have voting rights on the board or otherwise directly participate in meetings of the board.

 Directors emeritus shall receive no compensation for their service, but may be granted benefits and may attend events of the authority as guests of the authority at the discretion of the board. The directors emeritus shall serve as goodwill ambassadors for the authority and may perform duties at the request of the authority. Directors emeritus shall be subject

- 85 to subsections (e) and (f)."

- 87 (a) An agriculture authority shall have the following 88 powers, which it may exercise in the agriculture authority's 89 authorized operational area:
- 90 (1) To have succession by its corporate name until 91 dissolved as provided in this article.
- 92 (2) To adopt bylaws making provisions for its actions 93 not inconsistent with this article.
 - (3) To institute and defend legal proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction and proper venue; provided, however, that the board may not be sued in any trial court other than the courts of the county of incorporation; provided, further, that the officers, directors, agents, and employees of an agriculture authority may not be sued for their actions on behalf of the authority except for actions that are unreasonable or known by the person to be unlawful or are performed with reckless disregard for the lawfulness of such actions.
 - (4) To plan for construction and development of an agriculture center within the operational area of the agriculture authority on property owned by the authority. Construction and development may include, without limitation, any or all of the following:
- a. Buildings to hold offices for use by the federal government, the state or any agency of the state, the county, or one or more municipalities within the county.
- b. Buildings to house or accommodate public facilities

- of the federal government, the state or any agency of the
- 114 state, the county, or one or more municipalities within the
- 115 county.
- 116 c. Streets, boulevards, walkways, parkways, parks, or
- 117 other places of recreation.
- d. Monuments, statues, or other structures beautifying
- 119 the agriculture center.
- 120 e. Community houses or meeting houses or auditoriums.
- f. Arenas, convention halls, or convention sites sports
- 122 facilities, stadiums, hotels or other facilities for use as a
- transient guest housing facility, multifamily housing,
- dormitory housing, food courts or other food venue facilities,
- 125 any facilities which provide for or support any public or
- 126 private educational institution, and any other facilities
- related to or incidental with the foregoing.
- g. Music halls, art museums, art exhibits, or other
- 129 exhibits for the advancement of the humanities and cultural
- 130 development.
- 131 h. Any other buildings, structures, facilities, and
- other improvements that the board of directors of the
- 133 agriculture authority determines are appropriate or useful or
- 134 expedient to the authority's purposes from time to time. The
- determination of the authority board of directors shall be
- 136 conclusive.
- 137 (5) To acquire property and rights and interests in
- 138 property by gift, grant, lease, or purchase.
- 139 (6) To accept or receive gifts, bequests, and devises.
- 140 (7) To have and use a corporate seal and alter the seal

141 at its pleasure.

desires to construct.

- 142 (8) To appoint officers, agents, employees, and 143 attorneys and to fix their compensation.
- 144 (9) To hire professionals and enter into contracts for 145 their services in designing and supervising the construction 146 of any building, agriculture center, auditorium, arena, 147 convention hall, music hall, art museum, place of recreation, 148 art exhibit, office building, or other structure that it
- 150 (10) To make and enter into contracts and to execute 151 all instruments necessary or convenient to lease or purchase 152 and own real or personal property to be used for the 153 furtherance of the purposes for the accomplishment of which 154 the authority is created.
- 155 (11) To plan for programs and exhibits in the 156 agriculture center for the advancement of the agricultural, 157 cultural, and workforce development interests of the citizens 158 of the county and of the municipalities thereof.
- 159 (12) To purchase or lease real property and rights or 160 easements therein necessary or convenient for its purposes and 161 to use the same so long as its existence shall continue.
- 162 (13) To accept pledges of revenues or grants of money 163 from any person or governmental entity.
- 164 (14) To sell and lease its property to any person or 165 governmental entity.
- 166 (15) To enter into financing agreements with federal or 167 state agencies that may require the authority to mortgage its 168 property.

- 169 (16) To plan for programs and exhibits in the 170 agriculture center for the advancement of agricultural and 171 workforce development interests in the county.
- 172 (17) To enter into long-term contracts or agreements 173 for sewer service with any Class 5 municipality within three 174 miles of the authority or a utility board of the Class 5 175 municipality.
- 176 (18) To accept lease payments, loan repayments, or 177 other compensation to or for the authority or other public 178 person.
- 179 (19) To invest in bank deposits, U.S. Treasury bills, projects, instruments, real, personal, or mixed property, or 180 181 any other investments as the board of directors of the 182 authority may from time to time determine to be appropriate 183 and convenient to accomplish any purpose for which an agriculture authority is organized, including works of 184 185 internal improvement, interests in private or corporate 186 enterprises, loans of money or credit to individuals, 187 associations, or corporations; and to lend the authority's 188 credit, grant public money or things of value in aid of or to 189 any individual, association, or corporation whatsoever, or 190 become a stockholder in any such corporation, association, or 191 company by issuing bonds or otherwise even though they may be 192 in violation of Section 93 or Section 94 of the Constitution 193 of Alabama of 1901 2022 if done by the state, a county, city, town, or other subdivision of the state, notwithstanding the 194 fact that any such investment or action may involve the 195 196 expenditure or appropriation of funds received from a public 197 person. In particular, but not by way of limitation, an 198 authority may invest its funds, from whatever source, in the 199 stock, bonds, debentures, notes, or other securities issued by 200 any person locating a project in the authority's operational 201 area and may enter into contracts or options, including 202 contracts or options for the conveyance, sale, or lease of 203 property, to any such person and make direct grants of money, 204 property, or services for the purpose of inducing the person 205 to locate a project in the authority's operational area.

(20) To enter into deeds, mortgages, leases, loan agreements, or other agreements with any person.

223

- (21) To acquire real property for the purpose of 208 209 establishing one or more agriculture centers; to improve 210 agriculture center sites, whether owned by the authority or by 211 any other person, including the improvement of the centers or sites by the construction of roads, curbing, gutters, 212 drainage, sewerage, utilities, railroad spurs, docks, harbors, 213 214 ports, grading, and the like; to construct, for its own 215 account or the account of others, improvements thereon, 216 including any project, for the purpose of conveying, leasing, 217 or selling the same to any person, including the power to 218 convey, lease, or sell the same for its own account or to 219 construct the same as an inducement for any person to locate 220 and operate a project in the agriculture center or operational 221 area, even though the person may not have been identified at 222 the time that the improvement may be constructed.
 - (22) To sell, exchange, donate, and convey any or all of its properties whenever its board of directors finds the action to be in furtherance of the purposes for which the authority was organized.

- any of its powers and to apply proceeds from the sale of its bonds, whether heretofore or hereafter issued, not only for payment of interest thereon prior to and during the construction and equipment of any buildings, structures, facilities, or other improvements being financed thereby, but also for payment of interest thereon.
- (24) To mortgage and pledge any or all of its properties both real and personal or any part or parts thereof, as security for the payment of the principal of and the interest on any bonds so issued and any agreements made in connection therewith, whether then owned or thereafter acquired, and to pledge the revenues and receipts therefrom or from any thereof.
- (25) To enter into contracts, agreements, options, leases, loan agreements, deeds, and other instruments, and to take other actions as may be necessary or convenient to accomplish any purpose for which an authority is organized or to exercise any power expressly granted hereunder.
- (b) Contracts of an agriculture authority shall be executed in the name of the authority by the chair and attested by the secretary of the authority. The board may provide by resolution for a different form for the execution of a contract by an officer or agent other than the chair and secretary. A contract, irrespective of its form and of the persons executing the contract, shall not be binding unless 253 the contract is authorized or ratified by the board.

- (c) An agriculture authority may deposit its funds not needed to meet expenses or obligations in any bank or building and loan association, provided the deposit is fully insured by a federal corporation or agency of the federal government insuring deposits in financial institutions.
- (d) In exercising the powers enumerated in this section, all mortgages, contracts, judgments, investments, loans, debts, and other obligations of any sort of the authority due to any third party shall be recovered and enforced only against the authority unless the county commission approving the formation of the authority specifically agrees to accept the obligation by a separate affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the county commission.
- (e) In addition to all other powers at any time conferred on it by this section or otherwise by law, an authority shall have the following powers together with all powers incidental thereto or necessary to the discharge thereof in corporate form:
- (1) To participate as a shareholder in a corporation; as a joint venture in a joint venture, whether said joint venture is to be memorialized contractually or through the formation of one or more separate business entities; as a general or limited partner in a limited partnership or a general partnership; as a member in a nonprofit corporation, limited liability company; or as a member of any other lawful form of business organization, which may be involved in the 281 development or operational activities of any buildings, 282 structures, facilities, and other improvements that the board 283 of directors of the authority determines are appropriate or 284 useful or expedient to the authority's purposes from time to 285 time. In connection with the foregoing, an authority shall 286 have the power to elect or appoint an individual or individuals to a governing body, enter into contracts or other 287 288 agreements with other parties for the development, operation, 289 design, marketing, maintenance, and use of any facilities upon 290 the terms as the board of directors of the authority 291 determines are appropriate or useful or expedient to the authority's purposes. Any determination by the authority shall 292 293 be conclusive. (2) To make or arrange for loans, contributions to 294 295 capital, and other debt and equity financing for the activities of any corporation of which the authority is a 296 297 shareholder; any joint venture in which the authority is a 298 joint venture; any limited partnership or general partnership 299 of which the authority is a general or limited partnership; 300 any nonprofit corporation in which the authority is a member 301 of any other lawful form of business organization of which the 302 authority is a member; and to quarantee loans, issue bonds, or 303 incur other forms of indebtedness on behalf of the 304 corporation, joint venture, partnership, nonprofit 305 corporation, or other business entity, for such purposes. An 306 authority shall also have the power to loan funds which shall include seller financing arrangements whereby the authority is 307 308 a seller to other governmental entities or other business

ent	tities whether for profit or nonprofit and whether aff	filiated or non-affiliated with the authority, upon the ter	rms as the authority shall determine appropriate, useful, or exp	pedient for the authority's purposes and the determination by	the authority shall be conclusive.
	(3) To create, establish, acquire, operate, or support
suk	sidiaries and affiliates, either for profit or nonprofit,
to	assist the authority in fulfilling its purposes.
	(4) To create, establish, or support nonaffiliated for pro	ofit or nonprofit corporations or other lawful business orc	ganizations that operate and have as their purposes the fur	therance of the authority's purposes.
	(5) Without limiting the generality of the preceding suk	odivisions, to accomplish and facilitate the creation, est	ablishment, acquisition, development, operation, or support of	any subsidiary, affiliate, nonaffiliated corporation, or oth	ner lawful business organization by means of loans of funds, lea	ases of real or personal property, gifts and grants of fur	nds, or guarantees of indebtedness of the subsidiaries,
aff	filiates, and non-affiliated corporations.
	(6) In addition to any other authority to enter into cor	ntracts, an authority may enter into contracts, agreements, or	understandings with any other public and private parties
inc	cluding, but not limited to, the following:
	a. Design-build, design-build-operate, design-build-own -or	perate, design-build-own-operate-maintain, design-build-fir	nance-operate-maintain, or other similar arrangements or

336 agreements pursuant to which the design, right-of-way acquisition, relocation of structures or utilities, construction, financing, ownership, management, maintenance, and operation, or any combination thereof, of a project is accomplished by or on behalf of the authority.

b. Leases, licenses, franchises, concessions, or other agreements for the development, operation, management, or undertaking of all or any part of a project of or on behalf of the authority.
(7) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, proposals under this subsection may be evaluated and awarded by the authority based on qualifications of participants or best value, or both, as evaluated by procedures of the authority and taking into consideration the best interest of the authority. Evaluation criteria for a contract procured pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be set forth in the request for proposal for the contract. The contract may also be awarded through any existing procurement authority, proposals, or other means of procurement otherwise available to the authority."
" §11-20-80
(a) An agriculture authority and all property in which it may have any ownership, leasehold, or other interest, direct or indirect, is exempt from all municipal planning boards and municipal planning board requirements and all municipal zoning ordinances and laws. This exemption shall not apply to property owned by a private entity or private entities in which an agriculture authority has no ownership, leasehold, or other interest, direct or indirect.

(b) Any agriculture authority incorporated prior to the effective date of the act adding this subsection shall be exempt from any ordinance or regulation of any municipality unless the board of the authority consents to the application of the ordinance or regulation to the authority."

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately following its passage and approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
