Section 3. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, and subject to Section 4, a public agency shall not do any of the following:

(1) Require any person or nonprofit organization to provide the public agency with personal information or otherwise compel the release of personal information.

(2) Release, publicize, or otherwise publicly disclose personal information in its possession.

(3) Request or require a current or prospective contractor or grantee of the public agency to provide a list of nonprofit organizations to which the current or prospective contractor or grantee has provided financial or nonfinancial support.

Section 4. (a) This act does not preclude any of the following:

(2) Any lawful warrant for personal information issued by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Any lawful request for discovery of personal information in litigation if all of the following conditions are met:

   b. The requestor obtains a protective order barring disclosure of the personal information to any person not named in the litigation.

(4) Admission of personal information as relevant evidence before a court of competent jurisdiction; however, no court shall publicly reveal personal information absent a specific finding of good cause.

(5) A release of personal information by any public agency if the information has been voluntarily released to the public either by the person to which it pertains or by a nonprofit organization to which the person is a donor.

(6) The keeping of filings, certificates, and other public records that disclose the identity of any director, officer, registered agent, or incorporator of a nonprofit organization in any report or disclosure required by law to be filed with the Secretary of State, except that information that directly identifies a person as a donor of financial support to a nonprofit organization, shall not be collected or disclosed.

(7) Disclosure of personal information derived from a donation to a nonprofit organization affiliated with a public agency as required by law, if the person has not previously requested anonymity from the nonprofit organization.

(9) Any report or disclosure required by Chapter 5A of Title 41, Code of Alabama 1975, or any successor provisions thereto, except that information that directly identifies a person as a donor of financial support to a nonprofit organization shall not be collected or disclosed unless expressly required by law or when required for a legitimate audit or investigative purpose, provided that such information shall only be used in connection with the specific audit or investigation to which the request relates and for any related proceedings.

(b) Nothing in this act shall apply to a national securities association that is registered pursuant to Section as amended, or regulations adopted thereunder, or any information the national securities association provides to the Alabama Securities Commission as provided in Article 1 of Chapter 6 of Title 8, Code of Alabama 1975, and the rules adopted thereunder.

Section 5. (a) A person alleging a violation of this act may bring a civil action for appropriate injunctive relief, actual damages, or both. Damages awarded under this section may include one of the following, as appropriate:
(1) A sum of not less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) to compensate for injury or loss caused by each violation of this act.

(2) For an intentional violation of this act, a sum not to exceed three times the sum described in subdivision (1).

(b) A court, in rendering a judgment in an action brought under this act, may award all or a portion of the costs of litigation, including reasonable attorney fees and witness fees, to the complainant in the action if the court determines that the award is appropriate.

(c) A person who knowingly violates this act shall be guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.

Section 6. Personal information shall be confidential and shall not be considered a public record for purposes of Article 3 of Chapter 12 of Title 36, Code of Alabama 1975.

Section 7. Although this bill would have as its purpose or effect the requirement of a new or increased expenditure of local funds, the bill is excluded from further requirements and application under Section 111.05 of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022, because the bill defines a new crime or amends the definition of an existing crime.
