Senate Bill 157

Committee: Education Policy

Sponsor: Senator Arthur Orr

Analyst: John Friedenreich

Date: 02/27/2024

Senate Bill 157 as introduced would increase the administrative obligations of the State Board of Education and the local boards of education to adopt rules pursuant to the provisions of this bill. Additionally, this bill could increase the financial obligations of local boards of education to reimburse officers and employees that have successfully defended themselves in a civil or criminal legal action when they were conducting themselves in accordance with their assigned duties and responsibilities. This bill would also require an employee found or pleaded guilty, to reimburse the local board of education for any legal services expenses incurred by the local board.
