4	SYNOPSIS:
5	The state constitution directs the Legislature
6	to hold annual regular sessions of the Legislature.
7	This bill would propose an amendment to the
8	Constitution of Alabama of 2022, to divide each regula
9	session of the Legislature into two separate periods.
10	This bill would require budget bills to pass
11	before convening the second period of a regular
12	session.
13	This bill would allow the Legislature, during
14	the second period of a regular session, to reconsider
15	bills passed during the first period of that regular
16	session which were vetoed by the Governor.
17	This bill would also repeal obsolete provisions
18	of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022.

21	A BILL
22	TO BE ENTITLED
23	AN ACT
24
25	Proposing to repeal and replace Sections 48, 48.01,
26	48.02, and 125 with new Sections 48 and 125 of the
27	Constitution of Alabama of 2022, relating to the Legislature;

to divide the regular legislative session into two periods; to

28

- 29 require the Legislature to pass budget bills during a certain
- 30 time period; to provide further for the process of vetoes and
- 31 legislative overrides; and to delete obsolete language in the
- 32 Constitution of Alabama of 2022.
- 33 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:
- 34 Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution
- of Alabama of 2022, is proposed:
- 36 PROPOSED AMENDMENT
- 37 Sections 48, 48.01, 48.02, and 125 of the Constitution
- 38 of Alabama of 2022 are repealed and replaced with Sections 48
- 39 and 125 of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022 to read as
- 40 follows:
- 41 Section 48
- 42 (a) Sessions of the Legislature shall be held in a
- building designated by the Legislature as the Alabama State
- 44 House. If at any time the Governor determines, or the
- 45 President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the
- 46 House of Representatives jointly determine, that circumstances
- 47 exist that make meeting or remaining in the Alabama State
- 48 House impossible or dangerous, the Governor, or the President
- 49 Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of
- Representatives jointly, may convene the Legislature or remove
- 51 the Legislature after it has convened to some other suitable
- 52 place for the sitting of the Legislature.
- (b) (1) At the commencement of each quadrennium, the
- 54 Legislature shall convene an organizational session that shall
- 55 commence on the second Tuesday in January immediately after
- the election of the Legislature and shall be limited to 10

57 consecutive calendar days.

- (2) At the beginning of each organizational session and at such other times as may be necessary, the Senate shall elect one of its members as President Pro Tempore of the Senate to preside over the deliberations of the Senate in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor, and the House of Representatives shall elect one of its members as Speaker of the House of Representatives to preside over the deliberations of the House of Representatives. The President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall each hold his or her respective office until a successor has been elected and qualified.
 - (3) In addition to the election of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, the only business that may be transacted during the organizational session is the election of other legislative officers and the organization of the Legislature; the appointment of standing committees of the Senate and of the House of Representatives, which appointments may be made at such other times as may be necessary; the opening and publication of the returns and declaration of the results of the election for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, State Auditor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, and Commissioner of Agriculture and Industries; the election of any of these officers in the event of a tie vote; the determination of contested elections for these offices; the judging of the election returns and the qualification of the members of the Legislature; and the inauguration of the

- 85 Governor and the other elected state officers whose terms of office are concurrent with that of the Governor.
- 87 (c) (1) Regular sessions of the Legislature shall be 88 held annually and, commencing with the 2027 Regular Session, 89 shall be divided into two periods.
- on the first Tuesday in February and shall be limited to 20 legislative days and 75 calendar days, at which time the Legislature shall stand in recess. Any bill introduced during the first period that remains on the calendar at the end of the first period shall continue in its current status upon the end of the first period.
- 97 (3) If any bill providing for the basic appropriations 98 for a budget period, as required pursuant to Section 71.01 of 99 this constitution, is not passed by the Legislature during the first period of a regular session, the Legislature shall 100 101 convene a special budget session that commences the first 102 Monday after the end of the first period of the regular 103 session. At this special budget session, no bills other than 104 budget bills providing for basic appropriations may be 105 introduced. Any budget bill that was introduced and remained 106 on the calendar during the preceding first period may continue 107 in its current status in the special budget session. A special 108 budget session convened pursuant to this subdivision shall be 109 limited to 12 legislative days and 30 calendar days. A second or subsequent special budget session shall commence as 110 described in this subdivision until the Legislature passes all 111 112 bills required pursuant to Section 71.01 of this constitution.

(4) The second period of each regular session shall commence on the first Tuesday in September and shall be limited to 10 legislative days and 30 calendar days. Any bill other than a budget bill which was introduced and remained on the calendar during the first period may continue in its current status in the second period of the same regular session.

123

- (a) Every bill that has passed both houses of the Legislature and every resolution that has passed both houses of the Legislature shall be presented to the Governor.
- (b) If the Governor approves a bill presented to him or her, the Governor shall sign the bill. If the Governor does not approve a bill, the Governor shall return the bill, along with a message stating his or her objections, to the house in which the bill originated, as follows:
- 129 (1) If the Governor's message does not propose an 130 amendment to the bill which would remove the Governor's 131 objections, the house in which the bill originated may proceed 132 to reconsider the bill. If a majority of the whole number 133 elected to that house votes for the passage of the bill, the 134 bill shall be sent to the other house, which shall in like 135 manner reconsider the bill. If a majority of the whole number 136 elected to that house votes for the passage of the bill, the 137 bill shall become law.
- 138 (2) If the Governor's message proposes an amendment
 139 that would remove the Governor's objections, the house in 140 which the bill originated may so amend the bill and send the

141 bill with the Governor's message to the other house, which may 142 adopt, but may not amend, the amendment. If both houses concur 143 in the amendment, the bill shall again be sent to the Governor 144 and acted on by the Governor as other bills. If the house to 145 which the bill is returned refuses to concur in the Governor's 146 amendment, the house may proceed to reconsider the bill. If a 147 majority of the whole number elected to that house votes for 148 the passage of the bill, the bill shall be sent with the 149 objections to the other house, which may likewise reconsider the bill. If a majority of the whole number elected to that 150 151 house votes for passage of the bill, the bill shall become law. If the house to which the bill is returned concurs in the 152 153 amendment, and the other house declines to concur in the 154 amendment, that house shall proceed to reconsider the bill as 155 though the bill had originated in that house, and the bill 156 shall again be sent to the other house, which may adopt the 157 bill, but may not concur in the amendment. If a majority of 158 the whole number elected to that house votes for passage of 159 the bill, the bill shall become law.

(3) All votes taken in both houses pursuant to this subsection shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for or against the bill shall be entered in the journals of each house, respectively.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (d), if the Governor does not take any action on a bill presented to him or her on or before the seventh calendar day following the day the bill was presented to the Governor, the bill shall become law on that seventh day as if the Governor had signed the

- 169 bill, unless:
- 170 (1) The Legislature, before that seventh day, has
- 171 adjourned sine die, in which case the bill shall not become
- 172 law; or
- 173 (2) The Legislature, on that seventh day, is in recess
- other than a recess between the first period and second period
- of a regular session, in which case the Governor has an
- 176 additional two legislative days after the Legislature
- 177 reassembles to return the bill, along with a message stating
- the Governor's objections, to the house in which the bill
- 179 originated; or
- 180 (3) The Legislature, on that seventh day, is in recess
- 181 between the first period and second period of a regular
- 182 session, in which case the Governor, on the first day of the
- 183 second period of the regular session, shall return the bill,
- along with a message stating the Governor's objections, to the
- 185 house in which the bill originated. If the bill is not
- 186 returned on that first day, the bill shall become law on that
- 187 first day.
- 188 (d) Notwithstanding subsection (c), if a bill is
- 189 presented to the Governor within three days before adjournment
- 190 sine die, the Governor, on or before the tenth calendar day
- 191 following the date of adjournment, may sign and deposit the
- 192 bill with the Secretary of State, and the bill shall become
- 193 law on the date the bill is deposited with the Secretary of
- 194 State. If the bill is not signed and deposited with the
- 195 Secretary of State on or before that tenth day, the bill shall
- 196 not become law.

Upon ratification of this constitutional amendment, the Code Commissioner shall number and place this amendment as appropriate in the constitution omitting this instructional paragraph and may make the following nonsubstantive revisions: change capitalization, hierarchy, spelling, and punctuation for purposes of style and uniformity; correct manifest grammatical, clerical, and typographical errors; revise internal or external citations and cross-references; and translate effective dates.

END OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Section 2. An election upon the proposed amendment shall be held in accordance with Sections 284 and 285 of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022, and the election laws of this state. The appropriate election official shall assign a ballot number for the proposed constitutional amendment on the election ballot and shall set forth the following description of the substance or subject matter of the proposed constitutional amendment:

"Proposing an amendment to repeal and replace Sections 48, 48.01, 48.02, and 125 with Sections 48 and 125 of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022, to divide regular sessions of the Legislature into two periods; to require the Legislature to pass budget bills before the convening of the second period of a regular legislative session; and to allow the Legislature an opportunity to override Governor vetoes of bills passed during the first period of a regular legislative session.

223 Proposed by Act ."

This description shall be followed by the following

225	language:
226	"Yes () No()."
227	Section 3. The proposed amendment shall become valid as
228	a part of the Constitution of Alabama of 2022, when approved
229	by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon.
